

LUTHER CLASSICAL COLLEGE

LOCATION:

-Casper, Wyoming.

SETTING:

- Eleven-acre campus of Mount Hope Lutheran Church & School;
- Beautiful brick campus with classrooms and student housing
- Never to exceed 300 undergraduates.

OPENING:

-Fall, 2025

PURPOSE:

- To provide a college for Lutheran students that promotes:
- Lutheran theology, liturgy, hymnody, and identity;
- Conservative values for Christian marriage, family, and piety;
- Classical education with courses using the “great books” of our Western heritage for the core curriculum.

DEGREES & OPPORTUNITIES:

- A.A. and a B.A. in Classical Liberal Arts;
- Trade option for students desiring a trade profession;
- Specified tracks for future seminarians, teachers, and church musicians;
- Courses in Latin, history, theology, literature, logic, rhetoric, music, geometry, science, and mathematics, all within a purposefully Christian and Lutheran framework.

COST OF ATTENDANCE:

- Tuition is $8,500 a year, with opportunities for scholarships;
- No government aid.

ACCREDITATION:

- The college is seeking accreditation for its curriculum.

